

The Green Apple Experience

Share a unique experience by staying in an Indian House

We take the privilege to introduce ourselves as ventured hospitality division for branding homestays & bungalows. As green symbolizes life, health & environment, green is abundant is nature and green also indicates harmony & stability. We preferred this green to be known worldwide, we named our new concept of tourism as " Green Apple"

Shenbaga Vilasam, Pollachi

Welcome to the world where tradition and modernity blend in a wonderful tapestry of colors. Where the wonderful smells of rural India mingle with rich flavors of royal heritage. Built in the early 1900s in the midst of hundreds of acres of farmland and natural beauty, Shenbaga Vilasam is rare and fulfilling experience for you. Shenbaga Vilasam, opened its door to guests in the year 2007 for the first time due to the efforts and interest taken by Rajah Shankar Vanavarayar of Samathur. In his words “ Shenbaga Vilasam is a place where we want to portray our culture & tradition in the real sense to the visitor, one is made to feel at home here and yet experience everything that is south Indian

Homestays:-

Parayil Homestead

Parayil Homestead is a family home located in Ezhupunna (18 kms south of Kochin) nestling in acres of fruit trees, coconut groves and ambling pathways. Built more than a century ago, this is an elegant, traditional country home that retains the grandeur and history of an aristocratic family. Here's where you'll find antique woodwork, ancient granaries, and isolated attics! Ancestral stories abound, and so does the rustic essence of traditional Kerala architecture...Now lovingly restored and unobtrusively modernized, the Parayil Homestead give you a look into the pages of its history

Nelpura Heritage

The Nelpura Heritage Homestay at Alleppey is a renovated structure adjoining the ancestral house of Mr. Chacko and family. The building showcases the fine features of traditional Kerala architecture and woodcarving. Dates back around 150 years, the Homestay rooms made mostly with seasoned timber, still retain their original grandeur.

What makes Nelpura Heritage Homestay special and unique is the serene dignity it gains from the proximity of a happy home. It is an ideal long-stay retreat for writers and artists. It also makes for unforgettable holidaying in communion with a rustic world.

Elamthottam Bungalow

Elamthottam Bungalow was built in 1945. The word Thottam in Malayalam means an estate. As the name itself suggests the mansion is also an estate bungalow. The bungalow is a blend of local architecture, and the colonial style is evident on its well spread exterior patterns. The steeply pitched tile roof of the building flows down to border the low-fringed sheet roof, covering the bay windows seen on all sides of the bungalow. Elamthottam Bungalow is at a radius of 5kms from Kanjirapally Town & 100kms from Cochin.

Bamboo villa

Welcome to the warm Wayanad, where magnificent landscapes are in harmony with their population. In those hills and mountains, come to discover this pristine nature, as this district has picturesque picnic spots, lakes and reservoirs, energetic waterfalls, luxuriant forests, unique historical monuments and rich cultural traditions. Your hosts, Mr Baburaj and his wife welcome you in their home a truly symbol of harmony between nature and human being. The unusual house, made mainly by bamboo is built to show how human can be one with nature. Mr Baburaj is the president of URAVU (non-profit organization) and will be able to explain everything about this initiative.

Coconut Creek Farm and Homestay

Coconut Creek Farm and Homestay is a budget homestay located in Kumarakom. As are the rare places in the world, this property is a haven of peace. Based in the deep backwaters area, just near the Kumarakom Lake, Mr Babu and his wife Regina, welcome you to a unique experience. A 5 minutes walk away from your stay, the lake will offer you a wonderful view of the backwaters and all its activities.

The Arbor Getaways

Mr and Mrs Georg are glad to invite you in their house, full of memories from their children, grandchildren etc... This beautiful property, based in 3 hectares of a wonderful and very well kept garden, is a heaven of peace. Your hosts, retired, have full of time to interact with their guests and share ideas about tradition, culture and costumes. Mrs George is a very good cook and you will enjoy its home-cooked meals.
